

BUCKINGHAM ANSWERS
QUESTIONS LEE ASKEDShow Impropriety of First Question By Framing a Similar Query for His OpponentWhy City Should Have Retained Harbor Area and How Judgment In Favor of Railroad for Damages Would Have Worked Financial Benefit to MunicipalityCity Clerk Edward T. Buckingham, Democratic candidate for mayor, made a statement, this morning as follows:

1. When you stated in your speech accepting the nomination, and in your speech in the Second district on October 27, that you were "absolutely unpledged to any person or persons in this city," did you know that if you announced anything else you would be liable to $1,000 fine and one year's imprisonment under the Corrupt Practices act?

2. If you did know this, why?
Was it for political effect, or was it merely ironical?

I have been asked to answer certain questions. I will do so with special regard to questions 1 and 2.
I doubt if the gentlemen who named these questions quite understood that they were virtually accusing me, without proof, of being a criminal. That they may now understand the truly dastardly quality of these interrogations let me frame a similar question, which I will assume to be addressed to Mayor Lee, thus:

"When you changed your mind about the car barn surrender were you influenced by corrupt means?
You say you were not influenced by corrupt means. Do you say that you were not influenced by corrupt means because the statutes punish corruption? You said that you would leave town. Did you stay at home because you were afraid if you ran away you would be deemed a fugitive from justice?"

I do not charge that Mayor Lee was influenced by corrupt motives when he signed the Harbor Grab and Car Barn Surrender. The only charge I make is that those acts were not good public policy. But the question that I have framed is just as fair, and just as decent as the question that has been addressed to me with less excuse.

I must now insist that these gentlemen either prove the charges they attempt to make.

Or that they state their charges directly that I may proceed against them for criminal libel.

Or, if they are unable to do so, first, and unwilling to do so, second, that they publicly retract and make honest reparation for the wrong they have sought to do.

been increased $2,000,000?

4. The Democratic city attorney, Thomas M. Cullinan, advised the Mayor that the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company was certain to raise harbor line damages if the harbor line advocated by you should be adopted. In view of this advice, would you still insist upon the adoption of such a harbor line?

5. If so, would you raise the money to pay the damages by taxation or by the issuance of bonds?

6. Did you advocate the renomination of the three Democratic Aldermen who voted for the adoption of the line which you call the "harbor grab"?

7. Are you in favor of their election?

The charter as it stood in 1906 required damages to be paid. The charter as it was amended in 1907 relieved the city of the duty of paying damages. The opinion of the city attorney was given under the old charter. The proof of this is the passage of the "Little Joker" which put back into the charter the clause compelling damages to be paid.

Supposing the city had to pay $175,000 to protect the harbor would it not have been a wise expenditure and an exceedingly profitable investment, in that the TAXABLE VALUE of such RIPARIAN RIGHTS would be established at a VERY HIGH RATE.

Such a judgment would fix the average value of the riparian rights in each acre of the flats given to the railroad at $175.00. In the whole harbor is about 500 acres in which such rights exist. Assuming the average value of the rights in each acre, as the value would be established by such a judgment, as only $10,000, then the total value, which could be taxed by the city would be $5,000,000, which at the existing high tax rate would yield a tax revenue of $75,000 a year.
This would meet short term needs bearing date of one, two or three years to pay damages to the railroad, and leave the city in the enjoyment of a net revenue of $75,000 per year forever.

I had nothing to do with the nomination of any aldermen of any party. Who shall and who shall not be elected to any office it is the sovereign function of the electors to determine.

that millions of property of certain forms is undertaxed and that homes and lands are bearing more than their share of the tax burden.
If I am elected I will do my best to correct this inequality.

8. During the four years of Democratic administration from 1901 to 1905, can you name one concession secured by that administration from the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company, the Connecticut Railway & Lighting Company, the Bridgeport Gas Light Company, the United Illuminating Company, or the Bridgeport Hydraulic Company?

So far as I know no Democratic administration ever secured from the public service corporations such concessions as are embodied in the 20 year water contract, in the harbor grab, in the car barn surrender, or in the offer of a reduction of the cost of public lighting which involves a suspension of the investigation of the lighting company, the abandonment of reduced rates to private consumers, and the just taxation of the property of the company.

9. Did the Democratic administration secure, or attempt to secure, any dock property during the four years from 1901 to 1905? And if any attempt was made, when was it made?

The power under which the city of Bridgeport is enabled to condemn property of the railroad to establish public docks was not in the charter prior to Nov. 5, 1907.
It was earlier used as campaign argument to secure the election of Mayor Lee. If I am elected I will awake this power of the city from slumber, and put it to effective use.

PORTER CONVERTS
REPUBLICANS TO
MR. BUCKINGHAMFamous Athlete Will Bring Charges of Criminal Libel if Counsel Advises that They Will Hold.

Harry Franklin Porter has been one of the busiest men in the Democratic campaign. Yesterday he was invited to address a Sixth district Republican club in Madison avenue on the issues.
When he finished it is said that all but three members of the assemblage had decided to vote for Buckingham.
This morning he has consulted counsel to see if suit for criminal libel will lie against the Standard, who has charged him with supporting the Democratic candidate in return for being promised an office. Mr. Porter declines to restate that he is in this campaign and backing the Democratic nominees wholly and solely because he believes that by their election the welfare of the city will be best safeguarded and for no other or ulterior motive whatsoever.

WILL THE PEOPLE
FORGET—IN A WEEK?

Bridgeport, Conn., Oct. 31, 1909.
To the Editor Farmer: Sir—How about Mayor Lee's statement, delivered with characteristic egotism and arrogance, in his reply to Alderman Meyer, "the people will forget it in a week."
The people will forget it in a week.
That unknown quantity in Mr. Lee's administration, consistency, is as lacking here as elsewhere. He now says his course in the harbor matter was pure and for the best interests of the city. But what is this we are to forget? Was there ever greater insult directed toward the voters of a community? What degree of intelligence, pray, are we supposed to possess? Are you going to let Mr. Lee get away with this without comment? "THE PEOPLE WILL FORGET IN A WEEK." What?

STATEMENT BY
MR. MCGUINNESS

Editor of the Farmer:
I wish to call upon all the Democrats of the Eleventh District who supported the delegate ticket at the recent primaries headed by James A.
McGuinness to rally to the support of the entire Democratic ticket, Buckingham, Boucher, Donnelly, Thomas, Hall and all down the line. It is our purpose to give the present Democratic ticket the greatest majority ever secured in the Eleventh District.
I would request that all Democrats vote as early as possible, and work for the success of the entire ticket.
JAMES A. MCGUINNESS, 488 Stratford ave.

Mr. and Mrs. David T. Foote have returned from Norwich after a visit with Miss Annie G. Gould, daughter of the late Hon. James L. Gould of this city.

DESERVED RESENTMENT FELT BY CITIZENS IRRESPECTIVE OF POLITICS OVER DASTARDLY ATTACK ON BUCKINGHAM BY PAIGE'S ORGANVOTE EARLY; TURN DOWN
SECOND LEVER

There are many important days in American history and in American life but tomorrow is the greatest day of all and every elector should make it a point to observe the day by voting early.
Make it a point to vote before you go to work in the morning for there might be something happen whereby you could not get to the polls again during the day.
The most important business that any elector can have tomorrow is to cast his vote for the men who are to be the head of the various offices of the city government.
It will not take a jiffy to vote on the machines. You are in the voting booth and out in less than a minute.
Pull down the second lever from the top on the left hand side.
It has a letter "B" indicating by the second of the letter in the alphabet that it is the lever for the second row.
The second row is the Democratic row.
A vote for the straight ticket, is a vote to elect Buckingham and make the city of Bridgeport a city that we all may be proud of.

HEBREW VOTERS
RALLY IN BIG RALLYAttorney Joshua Meltzer Presides—Democratic Speakers Discuss Issues

The best rally in this campaign in point of numbers, class of people who attended it and enthusiasm displayed by the audience, was held at Lincoln Hall, Sunday night. The best elements of the Hebrew citizens of Bridgeport attended this meeting, the greatest majority of them being substantial business men and large tax payers and judging from the enthusiasm displayed by them it is evident that the sentiment of the business people of the city is enthusiastic for Buckingham and the entire Democratic ticket.
The meeting was presided over by Attorney Joshua Meltzer, who made a few introductory remarks outlining the issues of the campaign and said among other things "that the Democratic candidates do not get strength from the weakness of their opponents, only but standing by themselves, they are the best qualified, ablest and cleanest of young men ever been offered by any party for the suffrage of the people."

The Criticism quartet then sang a few campaign songs which greatly pleased the audience, especially that part where it ends with "Buckingham not Lee" and "Good by Henry Lee."
The first speaker of the evening was Harry Porter, who in his usual happy and interesting manner, delivered an interesting speech with humor and held the close attention of the audience for about 20 minutes. When Mr. Buckingham arose he gave an enthusiastic response to the cheering lasting about 10 minutes. His able speech was frequently applauded whenever he made a point and he held the audience in the echo when he said: "That while he is an unpledged candidate and he made no promises to any person or group of persons, he is willing to give his pledge and make this promise that if elected he will represent all the people, irrespective of party, class or color."

After Mr. Buckingham, John M.
Donnelly spoke. He received a very warm reception, as most of the audience knew him, having met him at the tax collector's office while paying taxes. Following Mr. Donnelly, Attorney Joshua Meltzer spoke, who delivered a very able address, and put the audience in good humor by telling them appropriate, humorous stories, and he was loudly applauded.
While Mr. Cullinan was speaking, Mr. Boucher, the candidate for city clerk came in and received the hearty cheering of the audience. Mr. Boucher followed Mr. Cullinan and he held the audience's closest attention for 30 minutes and he received the warmest applause at the close of his speech.
Attorney W. W. Bent followed Mr.
Boucher with a short speech and was very well received, as Mr. Bent is a familiar, old time Democrat was the last speaker of the evening and he told the audience how he became a Democrat. He was greatly applauded.

Deaths and Funerals

Dora A. wife of John F. Toole, of the firm of Toole & Sunderland, the well known local firm of dock builders and masons, died this morning at her late home, 329 Fenwick street, at the age of 47 years. The deceased had been a patient sufferer with stomach trouble for a number of years, but despite the ailment bore up under her sufferings and was always cheerful. For a number of years a resident of this city she had a most amiable disposition and had many friends. She leaves a daughter 10 years old.

Mary E. wife of James Keating, died Saturday evening at her late residence, 182 Wade street, after a brief illness.
She is survived by one daughter, Catherine, and four sons, John, Thomas, William and Walter.

Many of the older business men of the city, and relatives gathered this afternoon at 184 Park avenue, the residence of the late John Harvey Beach, to pay their last respects to their past associate. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. John DePen, pastor of the North Congregational church, with which congregation the deceased had been connected since his infancy, and whose acts, and those of the generations before him did much for the upbuilding of that church. The services were simple and carried out in the most quiet manner. The interment was in Mountain Grove cemtery.

Frederick E. Wheeler, aged 54 years, died this morning at the residence of his niece, Mrs. Walter Frank, 1492 North avenue, after a brief illness.
The deceased was a professional nurse by trade.

As Honorable a Young Man As Bridgeport Ever Produced Slandered By a Publication Notorious for Its Subserviency to Lobbyists and Greedy CorporationsStupid Assault Overreaches Mark and Redounds With Telling Effect Upon Its Perpetrators—Crowning Insult of Series of Foul Attempts to Besmirch Edward T.
Buckingham—The People Will Answer Malicious Charges Tomorrow.

No wonder a number of decent men about town today are hanging their heads with shame. It is no longer safe in this city for a gentleman to aspire for public office without submitting himself to outrageous attack at the hands of a desperate crew who seem to have learned the secret of how at least a portion of the press of this city can be had to aid them in their campaigns of infamy.

Everybody in Bridgeport who keeps abreast of public affairs knows that a certain publication issued once a week in this city has long been the personal organ of Allan W.
Paige and the interests he represents. It is no secret that Paige and those akin to him experience no trouble in getting this paper to shout for the pet measures of Paige and his interests.

The lobbyists in the last General Assembly recognized in this paper a friend in need and every public service corporation in this state regards it as extremely friendly and conspicuously useful in time of stress.

In its latest issue it attacked Edward T. Buckingham, accusing him of being the tool of gamblers and blacklegs.
It charged that in event of Buckingham being elected the city would be placed in the hands of men unfit to be trusted with power.

Unintentionally it brought out the fact that under Mayor Lee gambling dens are running here and then it goes on to say that although these forms of vice are now existing, undisturbed, under Lee, that the men interested prefer a change to Buckingham. Marvelous logic this.
What a colossal brain and massive intellect must have conceived it!

Detectives, it has found, have been scurrying about the city and find that these places are existing under Lee.
Said detectives then report that said places, although existing and doing business undisturbed, for some strange reason prefer the defeat of the man under whom, according to the eagle-eyed sleuths, they are thriving. Such a dream.

Then what? Why Buckingham is to become a tool of these gamblers, etc. What of Buckingham's character, good name and standing in this community where he has lived all of his life? Is a man to be judged not by his record of a life time or is he to be judged upon the slanderous statements of a venal and subsidized press.

DISCHARGED FOR
WEARING BUTTON
FOR BUCKINGHAMFate of Benato Celestino, 330 Hallett Street, An Employee of the U. M. C. Co.

Dentato Celestino, of 334 Hallett street, was discharged as a laborer in the employ of the U. M. C. Co. this morning, and he attributes his discharge to the fact that he has announced on several occasions that he was going to vote the straight Democratic ticket and because he has been wearing a Democratic button.

Celestino does not attempt to blame anyone but his boss, Andrew Caseria for losing his position.

To a Farmer reporter who asked Celestino for particulars concerning his discharge the latter said:
"I live next door to the boss, Caseria.
Yesterday there was two meetings, one Republican, one Democratic on the East Side. Caseria said to me, 'You going to vote?' I said, 'No, I am going to the Democratic meeting.' Caseria said, 'To Hell with the Democrats—they are poor and couldn't give you a job, that's what they were good enough for me as I was poor. Caseria shook his finger at me and said, 'All right now.'"

"This morning I went to work and Caseria told me to throw the dirt in one pile. I did as I was told to do.
Then he told me to throw the dirt in another place. I followed his orders and then he asked what the Hell was the matter with me and said I did not know anything and had better get through. I asked him if he thought he could fool me into saying that I would vote the Republican ticket and asked him for my pay for the time I had worked. He threatened to have a special policeman put me out, but engineer who heard the talk told him that he had better allow me for my time.

"A few days ago I told Caseria that I wanted to be off election day to work for the Democratic party and he told me that if I stayed away I would lose my job. I thought he was joking but this morning I saw that he meant it. When hired Caseria asked me if I was a voter, but I did not think much of it then. Now I know why he asked me."

NEW BISHOP MAY
BE DR. CUSACK

The report that Rev. James P. Donovan, D. D., of Middletown, was most likely to be the new bishop of the diocese of Hartford, succeeding the late Bishop Tierney, has given rise to other rumors regarding the head of the diocese. It is believed in some quarters also that the appointment of a bishop is most likely to go to the Rev.
Thomas Cusack of New York, at present auxiliary bishop of the New York diocese. Bishop Cusack's name has been little mentioned in connection with this diocese, but there is a strong belief that he is likely to be the man chosen.

It will be interesting to Catholics to know in this connection that there is talk of the division of the diocese. Information comes from New York that a meeting of authorities was held recently to discuss the question of the formation of a new diocese to include a part of the New York diocese and a part of the diocese of Hartford, the new diocese to include the territory between the Hudson river and the Naugatuck, and the establishment of the see at either Poughkeepsie or Danbury. For the honor of being the seat of authority in the diocese it is understood that Danbury is most favorably considered, as being more a central city.

LAST RALLY OF ALL
IN EAST BRIDGEPORT

To close the campaign there will be a big rally in East Bridgeport tonight under the auspices of the Slavonian-American Democratic club at Zitnay's Hall 172 Willard street. The meeting will be called at 7:30 o'clock and all residents of East Bridgeport are invited to attend. Several of the candidates and a number of prominent citizens will speak.

MANY LICENSES ISSUED.
November 1 found the offices of the County Commissioners filled with il-liquor dealers. Twenty-three licenses were issued during the morning. The rush was due more for the fear of remonstrances being filed than for any other reason.

The Farmer unhesitatingly declares that the author of the cowardly and unjustifiable attack upon the character of Edward T.
Buckingham knew, or if he didn't know, he should have known, that he was guilty of libel, and that he was fastening, or attempting, as far as he was able to fasten, upon the good name of one of our city's most representative citizens a stigma which if true would call for Mr. Buckingham's retirement from public life.

It was the greatest writer of English who ever lived who breathed immortality into the thought that "he who steals my purse steals trash, but he who steals from me my good name takes that which not only does not enrich him, but makes me poor indeed."

The dastardly attack yesterday upon Edward T. Buckingham was a vile and villainous effort to deprive him of his good name and thereby deprive him of the respect and admiration of his fellow citizens.

It was by the same token an attack upon every other decent man in this city of ours, and in our opinion will not pass without receiving the rebuke which it so richly deserves.

Every young man in this city and the father of every young man should show by his vote tomorrow that they resent the methods of this modern school of scurrility.

It can be answered and we believe it will be answered in such a manner that it will never again be attempted. The decent thought of our city should express itself in no unmistakable terms at the polls tomorrow.

We feel sorry for Henry Lee. If ever a man should exert himself to action and with every fibre of his being throbbing to the utmost acclaim to the multitude that he be delivered from his friends, he is that man.

Publicly declaring to his fellow citizens from his official station as Mayor in the city hall that he would have to move out of Bridgeport if he ever signed the car barn grab, he by some strange influence was induced subsequently to do the very thing he said would compel him to leave the city if he did so.
Now a portion of the press that is supporting him oversteps all bounds of decency in attacking his opponent with the result that hundreds of Republicans will help swell the storm of Buckingham votes that will tomorrow write the word "finis" to the Lee administration.

Clerk and the Attacks Upon Him.

Among those who were initiated into the Knights of Columbus Sunday evening was William Thomas, Democratic candidate for town clerk. Mr.
Thomas will close his six years faithful service as an alderman at the meeting of the Common Council, this evening. As a member of the Board he has done an enormous amount of faithful and valuable work which has not attracted much public attention.
He has also originated and promoted many of the reforms which have fixed the attention of the voters. He did especially valuable work in the investigation of the breaking of the Beardsley Park Dam. His report upon that matter was a fearless indictment of the conditions that led up to the catastrophe by which so many people were injured in person or in property.
He has always been an ardent advocate of tax reform and is at present chairman of the investigating committee which is inquiring into the whole subject of municipal taxation.
The only argument that has been urged against the election of Mr.
Thomas by his opponents is that he has only one leg. Mr. Thomas lost one leg while he was a boy, by being struck by a train. Despite this curious handicap, however, he has attained to a more than average degree of success in the affairs of life, and has proved his ability in several fields.
Mr. Thomas is of German parentage and descent. He is a member of the Schwaben Verein and a member of Bridgeport Aerie, Eagles, and since last night a member of the Knights of Columbus.
